

Lets Get This Straight: 7 Staggeringly Simple Questions That Create Happiness in Relationships

What enables some people to feel fulfilled and free in a committed relationship, while others experience love as a source of uncertainty, regret or resentment? How come some people manage to maintain integrity and self-respect despite relationship difficulties, while others start to blame and behave badly? Why do some people command respect and admiration, while others meet resistance time after time? Is it possible to turn a toxic relationship into a fulfilling partnership in less than a month? The answer is YES, once you start thinking straight! After reading this book you will be able to: master many of your thoughts and emotions; read your relationships clearly and objectively; reduce the likelihood of arguments in your relationship; resolve tension when it arises and use it to deepen the relationship; enjoy fruitful partnerships with self respect, dignity and joy. Lets Get This Straight explodes many of the accepted wisdoms around relationships and offers a highly do-able approach to creating happiness with others in love and work. You will discover skills you never knew you had, brush up others you havent used for a while, and learn how to put them to work to turn your relationship into an adventure you wont want to end.
