

The Pursuit of God

My acquaintance with the author is limited to brief visits and loving fellowship in his church. There I discovered a self-made scholar, an omnivorous reader with a remarkable library of theological and devotional books, and one who seemed to burn the midnight oil in pursuit of God. His book is the result of long meditation and much prayer. It is not a collection of sermons. It does not deal with the pulpit and the pew but with the soul athirst for God. The chapters could be summarized in Moses prayer, Show me thy glory, or Pauls exclamation, O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! It is theology not of the head but of the heart.
