THREE HUNDRED FIFTY YEARS INTO THE FUTURE, professional time explorer Andrew Colbergs well-earned vacation in the former Pacific Northwest is unexpectedly interrupted when a ragged fugitive stumbles into his campsite. The man is quickly dragged away by a team of elite soldiers, but not before he gives Andrew a cryptic message about the past one that soon launches Andrew into a thrilling investigation of a renegade group known as the Yeshua Loyalists. Using his high-ranking position at the Global Time Lines headquarters in New Denver, Andrew and his childhood friend Susan seek to uncover a long-buried secret that could forever change their lives and the very course of the Earth if they can escape from the powerful forces that want to keep the truth hidden.
