

Trial by Fire

Ronnie Monroe had lost everyone she ever loved including her husband and child, and finally, her twin. Now, in the middle of the biggest government cover-up she investigated since beginning her career as a journalist fifteen years before, she found herself falling in love with the two men closest to the story. If the things NASA had recently discovered were released, they would affect every major religious belief in the world. Ronnie stared at the new star projected on the NASA screen. It looked so harmless, pretty actually. No one would guess it was aimed straight at the center of the Earth. But Blake and Rashid weren't looking at the star. Both were staring directly at Ronnie, the passions they shared reflecting in their eyes.
